

Call for scholarship applications at
Faculty of Mathematics and Computer Science, Jagiellonian University in the "Random Walks in Geometry and Topology" project implemented within the framework of the Dioscuri Centre of Scientific Excellence

Who can apply:

The scholarship holder might be a person who, at the time of commencement of the scholarship, is a student of second-cycle studies or master's studies, pursued at universities in Poland or a doctoral student at a Doctoral School in Poland.

You don't have to satisfy the above criteria at the moment of application, but the scholarship is conditional on obtaining the required student status by the time the appointment starts.

The preferred starting date is fall 2024 or earlier.

Requirements:

- Good knowledge of theoretical mathematics at Master's level,
- Ability to work independently,
- No previous research experience is required.

Job description:

- Research work within the themes of the Dioscuri Centre,
- Publication of achieved results in scientific journals,
- Possible preparation of a PhD thesis under the supervision of Dr Mikołaj Frączyk.

NCN competition type: Dioscuri

Deadline for submission: 03.03.2024

Form of submission: e-mail dioscuri@matinf.uj.edu.pl

The monthly amount of the scholarship is PLN 5,000, and may be awarded to a person who already receives a PhD scholarship at Doctoral School. The scholarship will be awarded initially for a period of 12 months with the possibility of extension up to 48 months.

There is possibility of funding for short study trips and participation in conferences.

Required documents:

- CV taking into account the course of study (including a list of subjects related to the topic of the project), academic achievements (including any preprints and publications), scholarships, awards, academic and professional experience (including participation in workshops, trainings, internships and research projects);
- up to two letters of recommendation (optional);
- signed information on the processing of personal data.

Please send the documents electronically to: dioscuri@matinf.uj.edu.pl (subject line: Dioscuri Scholarship). Selected individuals will be invited for an online or in-person interview.
